One of the Coolest Things about Living in Peachtree City

I've lived in Peachtree City since 1985. Moved here at the end of my 9th grade school year, was depressed, tried to run away twice, but ended up loving it, got a job at Hardees right away and I've been here ever since. My friends in Miami scared me and told me I was going to end up being a hillbilly by moving here and at that age I guess I believed them, hahaha!

Anyway, since back then, I've seen the Peachtree City Independence Parade and always was amazed at the talent and all the work it took to make the beautiful floats that we see. This year, we are once again going to be in the parade. We're even going to have an air dancer! Love those things. We're of course, going to have our Hayfer Group golf cart and float - and rotating dollhouse - and also have a special surprise that Bill is going to be doing. We'll be recording the whole thing too and I will be posting it up on our Hayfer Group Facebook Page.

Those who are thinking of moving to Peachtree City, take a look at the parade that we do, come visit and see for yourself and we will gladly show you around and of course, look at some homes with you! Hope to see y'all at the parade!
