When in Doubt...

When it's time for someone to put their home on the market, things will pop up that you may want to make a punch list for and repair, etc. One of them, if you have it is tile. If it's worn out and tired looking, do you replace the whole thing? Do you try to clean it as best as you can (yes) - but, what about the grout? If the stains aren't coming off and it just looks worn out, you can color it with a grout marker! Those things are lifesavers and will definitely improve your tile if that's your intention. Have you used grout pens before? Read this for more.
