How Do You Choose?

We're ripping out our old flooring and putting in new. But boy, how do you choose which flooring you want? The style, color, texture, list goes on and on. I love the stores that give you samples to take home so you can actually see the difference throughout the day. Fayette Floor and Wallcovering let us take home some floor samples, so, we did just that and have to figure out which ones look the best with our color scheme.

For those of you who have remodeled in the past or even lately which is just about everybody) - how did you choose your final selection? Were you able to take home samples when deciding? What company did you use?
